| Who we are

Second Helpings is a thrift store founded and operated by the Flathead Food Bank. Our thrift store is a nonprofit organization, run by the same volunteer board of directors and executive director as the Flathead Food Bank. Daily operations are carried out by our small staff and our dedicated volunteers. All donations to Second Helpings are tax deductible. The profits from Second Helpings create a sustainable revenue stream for the Flathead Food Bank and ensure we will be able to feed the hungry in our community in the years and decades to come.

| Our goals

1. To run a high quality thrift store with the most competitive prices in town
2. Offer new employment opportunities
3. Offer new volunteer opportunities
4. Reach out to community supporters in new ways
5. Create ongoing sustainable income for the Flathead Food Bank

| What we do

operate a retail store

Second Helpings operates out of an 11,000 square foot space in the Gateway Community Center, adjacent to the Flathead Food Bank. We sell many items, including women's, men's, and children's clothing, shoes, accessories, books, household items, sporting equipment, appliances, electronics, and more.

recycle

Second Helpings recycles everything we are able to, including clothing, appliances, metals, small electronics.

| how we are exceptional

- * Low, flat rate pricing
- * 50% off the first three business days of each month
- * Recycling
- * Donation pick-up
- * Tax deductible receipt

| 100% local

Second Helpings is fully integrated into our community. We receive donations from people, businesses, and other nonprofit organizations in the Flathead. Our staff, volunteers, and customers are local. And best of all, 100% of the profit supports the Flathead Food Bank.

The Flathead Food Bank provides emergency food assistance through their pantries in Kalispell, Evergreen, Bigfork, Martin City, and Marion. In 2012, the Flathead Food Bank served 1,130,876 pounds of food to 58,890 people in our community. The support of Second Helpings will ensure that the Flathead Food Bank will always be here to help.
